A collection of remote villages mainly in the Atlantic provinces, Backcountry Boomers is about as rural as it gets. These households are mostly older, empty-nesting couples and those living alone. Forty percent of maintainers are over 65, most adults are out of the labour force and nearly three-quarters of households contain only one or two people. Incomes are modest, but they're enough for households to own a single-detached house and enjoy an unpretentious lifestyle. These Canadians like to fish, hunt and garden, for the camaraderie as much as the opportunity to put food on the table. Their hobbies are the old-fashioned variety: crafts, knitting and collecting coins and stamps. Despite their remote communities, they prefer in-store shopping to e-commerce.

R2 LOWER-MIDDLE RURAL · OLDER FAMILIES & EMPTY-NESTS M1
Older, middle-income rural couples and families

The largest PRIZM segment with nearly 400,000 households, Down to Earth consists of older couples and families found in rural communities across the country. Eight out of ten adults are homeowners, typically owning single-detached homes. The majority of maintainers are over 55 years old. And most households earn average incomes from a mix of blue-collar and service sector jobs. With more than 80 percent of households third-plus-generation Canadians, they share a tradition-bound lifestyle: many spend their leisure time close to home and nature, enjoying sewing, knitting, bird-watching and snowmobiling. Their yards often have a small collection of trucks, cars, boats, ATVs and RVs. Not surprisingly, these older folks have traditional media patterns, favouring TV sports, country music radio, gardening magazines and community newspapers.

The second most affluent rural segment, Country Traditions is a collection of small communities scattered across the eastern half of Canada. In this segment, middle-aged, and older couples and families work at blue-collar and service sector jobs. Most own a recently built, single-detached house, along with a large pickup for backcountry driving. With half the maintainers over 55, these third-plus-generation Canadians enjoy old-fashioned pursuits like gardening, boating, fishing, camping and swimming. Self-reliant, they like to work with their hands, doing ambitious remodeling projects as well as traditional home crafts. With their teenage children, they make a strong market for toys, pets and sporting goods; a big splurge is attending a professional baseball or basketball game. Vacations often involve a cottage stay.

Boomer Bliss consists of older couples and families found in suburban neighbourhoods surrounding many large cities. Nearly two-thirds of maintainers are over 55 years old, and households show an increasing shift towards retirees. With their university and college educations, those still employed hold white-collar positions. Their upper-middle-class incomes allow them to own comfortable single-detached houses graced with pools and patios. Many have paid off mortgages and show little interest in leaving their empty nests. They take advantage of their proximity to both city centres and small towns, enjoying the arts—theatre, art galleries and city parks—and outdoor activities like golfing and boating. Going out may mean dinner at a pub, sports bar or casual family restaurant.
