R1 UPPER-MIDDLE RURAL F3 MIDDLE-AGE FAMILIES
Rural, upper-middle-income couples and families

The second most affluent rural segment, Country Traditions is a collection of small communities scattered across the eastern half of Canada. In this segment, middle-aged, and older couples and families work at blue-collar and service sector jobs. Most own a recently built, single-detached house, along with a large pickup for backcountry driving. With half the maintainers over 55, these third-plus-generation Canadians enjoy old-fashioned pursuits like gardening, boating, fishing, camping and swimming. Self-reliant, they like to work with their hands, doing ambitious remodeling projects as well as traditional home crafts. With their teenage children, they make a strong market for toys, pets and sporting goods; a big splurge is attending a professional baseball or basketball game. Vacations often involve a cottage stay.

S6 OLDER SUBURBIA M2 MATURE SINGLES & COUPLES
Older middle-income suburbanites

Scenic Retirement exemplifies one of Canada's dominant demographic trends, the aging population. With more than two-thirds of household maintainers over 55 years old, the segment features older married couples and singles living in the suburban neighbourhoods of smaller cities. Most members own single-detached houses and though only half are still in the labour force, incomes are above $100,000 from a mix of sectors. These households stay active by playing golf, fitness, walking and gardening. A night out may mean a trip to a casino or community theatre. And with most residents born well before the advent of the Internet, this segment is a bastion of traditional media.

S1 M1
Older, financially comfortable suburbanites

Boomer Bliss consists of older couples and families found in suburban neighbourhoods surrounding many large cities. Nearly two-thirds of maintainers are over 55 years old, and households show an increasing shift towards retirees. With their university and college educations, those still employed hold white-collar positions. Their upper-middle-class incomes allow them to own comfortable single-detached houses graced with pools and patios. Many have paid off mortgages and show little interest in leaving their empty nests. They take advantage of their proximity to both city centres and small towns, enjoying the arts—theatre, art galleries and city parks—and outdoor activities like golfing and boating. Going out may mean dinner at a pub, sports bar or casual family restaurant.

S5 F3
Suburban, middle-income couples and families

A quintessential portrait of Middle Canada, Happy Medium consists of couples and families living in the outer suburbs of large and midsize cities. The segment contains a mix of middle-income households of varied ages (maintainers range from 45 to over 75), educations (mostly high school or college) and family types (couples and families). Many households in this segment have deep roots: three-quarters of residents are third-plus-generation Canadians. Residents typically hold blue-collar or service sector jobs, and most own an older, single-detached house. With their unpretentious lifestyles, they enjoy home-based pursuits like woodworking, gardening and sewing, and outdoor activities such as canoeing, rowing and snowmobiling. To stretch their budgets, many shop at second-hand clothing and discount grocery stores.
